- Sri Sathya Sai Prema Pravahini Ratham in TN North districts:

SSS Prema Pravahini Ratham visited our Sai Charanam on Dec 1st.

On the auspicious morning of 2nd December, the Prema Pravahini Ratham arrived at Chennai West, UI Colony Samithi, at 5:30 AM, carrying with it the divine presence of our beloved Swami. The atmosphere was sanctified as devotees reverentially welcomed Swami with Poornakumbham and the resounding chants of Veda Ghosham. The vibrations of Aumkaram and Suprabatham further elevated the spiritual ambience, filling every heart with peace and devotion. Throughout the day, devotees were blessed with the rare opportunity to have Swami's darshan, and the evening was adorned with special bhajans from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM, offered with love and gratitude.

On 3rd December at 7:00 AM, the Prema Ratham continued its sacred journey towards Telangana. Seven dedicated members from our district accompanied the Ratham, humbly carrying forward this divine mission and handing it over to the next state. This blessed event not only deepened the spiritual fervor of our Samithi but also united devotees in a collective expression of love, surrender, and service. The presence of the Ratham left behind an indelible atmosphere of divine grace, reminding all that Swami's love flows ceaselessly, uplifting and guiding His devotees on the path of devotion and unity.

Spiritual Wing Activities

1. Chennai West

- Ekadasha Rudra Parayanam

On 14th December, the entire district was blessed with the collective chanting of the Ekadasha Rudra Parayanam, conducted simultaneously across 10 Samithis, with nearby Samithis joining together in unity. The sacred vibrations of the Rudram resonated powerfully as more than 180 devotees participated with deep devotion, filling the atmosphere with divine energy and spiritual fervor. The collective recitation not only sanctified the surroundings but also strengthened the bond of unity among devotees, reminding all the protective and purifying grace of Lord Shiva. This district-wide Parayanam became a beacon of spiritual upliftment, leaving every participant with a sense of peace, strength, and renewed devotion.

- Graamiya Sangamam at Adopted Villages

On the blessed occasion of the Graamiya Sangamam, youth members and Bal Vikas gurus of our district lovingly gathered at the adopted villages of Periya Vannan Kuppam and Chinna Vannan Kuppam to share joy, values, and service. The day was filled with vibrant activities — value-based games for children that instilled moral lessons, and engaging team-building games for the youth that strengthened unity and cooperation. Traditional sports such as Uriyadi and Tug of War brought festive cheer, while an introductory session on career counselling offered guidance and hope for the future of the village youth.

In Chinna Vannan Kuppam, the children and youth themselves became instruments of culture and devotion, presenting heartfelt programmes that reflected their talents and values. Acts of service further sanctified the day: blankets were distributed to families, tailoring machines were gifted to two needy women to support their livelihood, and Narayana Seva was lovingly offered to the entire village. More than 50 youth members participated with enthusiasm, joined by State Service Coordinators and State Youth Coordinators, making the celebration a true expression of collective devotion and service.

This full-day Sangamam not only brought joy and unity to the villages but also deepened the spirit of seva among the youth, leaving behind an atmosphere of gratitude, empowerment, and divine love.

- Bhajans for Vaikunta Ekadasi

On the sacred occasion of Vaikunta Ekadasi on 30th December, the Thiruvengatapuram Perumal Temple was filled with divine vibrations as special bhajans were offered in devotion to the Lord. Around 30 devotees gathered with heartfelt sincerity, their collective voices rising in prayer and praise, sanctifying the temple atmosphere with spiritual fervor. The bhajans created an aura of peace and upliftment, allowing all present to experience the bliss of entering the Vaikunta Dwaram through devotion.

In addition to the bhajans, more than 200 members of the public who visited the temple were blessed with copies of Sanathana Sarathi, spreading Swami's message of love and righteousness. This act of service ensured that the divine teachings reached many hearts, inspiring them to walk the path of spirituality. The programme thus became not only a celebration of Vaikunta Ekadasi but also a means of sharing Swami's love and wisdom with the wider community, leaving behind an atmosphere of joy, devotion, and divine grace.

- Christmas celebration at Valasaravakkam Samithi

Sri Sathya Sai Seva Organisations, Tamil Nadu (North)

On December 27th, the Valasaravakkam Samithi was filled with festive joy and divine vibrations as devotees gathered to celebrate Christmas in a spirit of love and devotion. The programme began with melodious Christmas carols rendered by Group 4 girls, whose voices uplifted the hearts of all present. Adding charm and innocence to the celebration, Bal Vikas children dressed as angels radiated purity and joy, while Bal Vikas alumni, embodying the spirit of giving, dressed as Santa Claus and lovingly distributed gifts and chocolates, spreading cheer among young and old alike.

The occasion was further sanctified as a few Bal Vikas children and gurus shared their heartfelt experiences with Swami, inspiring everyone with their devotion and reminding all His eternal presence and guidance. The celebration witnessed the participation of 40 Bal Vikas children, 6 gurus, and 35 members, making it a vibrant gathering of faith and fellowship. The day concluded with hearts filled with gratitude, joy, and the reaffirmation that Christmas is not merely a festival, but a reminder of living in love, service, and unity as taught by Swami.

- Nagarsankirthan at Margazhi

During the auspicious Tamil month of Margazhi, the streets of our district have been sanctified daily with the divine vibrations of Nagarsankirtan. The Samithis of Thirunagar, Nesapakkam, BDS Colony, Ashok Nagar, and KK Nagar have come together in unity to conduct this sacred practice every morning, filling the surroundings with the melodious chanting of the Lord's name. Valasaravakkam Samithi too has been offering Nagarsankirtan each day, ensuring that the entire community is blessed with the spiritual energy of collective devotion.

The daily chanting has created an atmosphere of purity and peace, uplifted the hearts of devotees and inspired the wider public to turn towards spirituality. The collective effort of the Samithis reflects the essence of Margazhi — a month dedicated to prayer, discipline, and surrender — and stands as a testament to Swami's message that singing the Lord's name is the simplest and most powerful path to liberation.
